TERMS OF ENGAGEMENT:

If you return the Worksheets to our office for preparation, you will be asked to sign our Engagement Agreement and you agree to the terms and conditions of the Agreement (a copy of which is attached to the Information Package part of these worksheets) even if the original Agreement is not signed inadvertently, or not signed until the time of the final preparation of the paperwork for filing. The returning of the Worksheets constitutes your agreement to the terms of our engagement set forth therein. Thank You.

These worksheets are our office's attorney/client working papers and generally cannot be and will not be released or disclosed to any third party by our office because they are privileged attorney/client documents used by our office to give you informed legal advice. These worksheet papers are given to our office for us to be able to give you full and complete legal advice or assistance in your bankruptcy legal proceedings. We cannot give you informed legal advice unless these Worksheets are filled out fully and completely, and which you might not have otherwise disclosed absent this privilege. From these worksheets, we will review the information with you, and we will prepare draft Schedules and Statements which we will also go through with you before final preparation and filing with the court. This information is important to us in order to advise you about the various chapters of Bankruptcy, the right to exemptions, the means test issues, and other legal consequences of filing.

YOU MUST ATTACH THE FOLLOWING TO THE WORKSHEETS, AS THEY ARE REQUIRED TO BE PROVIDED TO THE TRUSTEE:

ATTACHED CHECKLIST:

1. _____ Your last year's filed federal Income Tax Return (Form 1040)
If you didn't file a return for last year, then a copy of the last tax return you did actually file
2. _____ Copies of your last two months pay stubs, or other pay verification for the prior two months.
3. _____ Copy of your bank statements, for all bank accounts, for the month that we file the bankruptcy. The trustee is required to verify the amount on hand at the time of the filing, and we must provide the trustee with bank statements for verification. Therefore, be careful when filling out the forms, to account for checks that are written but not cleared.
4. _____ A copy of your social security card (or something with your social security number on it that you did not prepare, such as a W-2 statement, etc.)
5. _____ Copy of your Driver's License
6. _____ A copy of your credit report. We recommend getting a credit report (which can be obtained for free) to verify all your creditor debt. Try: www.annualcreditreport.com

UNSECURED DEBTS

Debts refer to any amount of money that you owe to any person or company. This includes any debt that has been "Charged Off." Monthly bills, such as the telephone bill or car insurance are not debts unless you are more than one month behind. You already listed debts that are secured in the Asset Section, so you will not need to relist them here. If you are unsure whether a debt is secured or not, call us. If there is a debt you wish to continue paying, you must still list it in this Section. Failure to do so can result in additional fees, denial of your bankruptcy, or even criminal prosecution. We can always attempt to pull debts out after the case is filed.

Debts are divided into categories by the Court:

1. Taxes owed to either the IRS or a state or local government;
2. Delinquent Child Support or Alimony;
3. Other Debts owed to an ex-spouse;
4. Court Fines, including traffic and parking infractions;
5. Student Loans;
6. Consumer Debts, including credit cards, medical bills, NSF checks, etc.

PAST INCOME

HOUSEHOLD

In most proceedings, your "income" is defined as your average income for the past six months. Therefore, if your income has had significant variations over the last six months, such as a period of unemployment, large/small commission variances, change of jobs, etc., then please itemize your monthly income from each month over the last six months. Also, remember that "income" is not just wages, but can be child support, unemployment benefits, pension or retirement, or rent income from a tenant, etc. Please break down your total income for the last six months.

This is important, in that the bankruptcy laws now provide that certain "high income" debtors cannot file Ch.7, and must file pay-back Ch.13 or Ch.11 plans instead. You may have heard the term "means test" which goes through your prior 6-month's income, and certain allowed expenses to see if you qualify for Ch.7. If the Trustees think you do not qualify, they can bring a motion "for abuse of the bankruptcy law" [commonly called a Section 707(b) motion] to scrutinize your prior and current income and your current expenses. Thus, we need this information to evaluate your eligibility for Ch.7 under the means test.
